

Brief Bio: Joan Hillebrand Alexander

Joan is an Executive Coach and Consultant with Alexander & Associates LLC, a Denver-based consulting business that helps individuals, teams and organizations to achieve meaningful and sustainable change. She previously held senior positions in management consulting, financial services, organizational communications and marketing in the US and UK.

Joan is a professionally certified executive coach, change management consultant and trainer. Her expertise includes leading organizational change during culture change, reengineering, centralization and downsizing.

Joan works with leaders and teams in major corporations, education and other government organization and non-profits to maximize performance and expedite change. She guides veteran leaders to step into new ways of leading. She works with new leaders to expand their leadership tool kit. She helps teams to work together more effectively.

Joan's clients have included Comcast, NOAA, the Seattle School District, The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, Bankers Trust (Europe) and British Broadcasting Corp and British Aerospace.

Joan is married to Bart Alexander, with whom she founded Alexander & Associates LLC. She lives in Denver CO and previously practiced in Tucson AZ, Seattle WA, Fort Meyers FL, Toledo OH and London UK.

July 2014